

Hi Everybody,

Sunday wasn't a good day for sailors but a brilliant day for wind surfers! I think that's Jacob to the left showing us what to do! What amazing colours the sea has.

Sailing Events

Sadly, the wind was 6 gusting 7 on Sunday morning – very different to last week Sunny epic sailing! Oh well, as I have said it wasn't a good day for the sailors but stunning for those wind surfers. You win some and you lose some.

Angling & Fishing

From RC Angling Paul C, some sunny photos to cheer you up.

A couple (yes, that really is Sally underneath that hat), with a couple of nice Skate! Also, Dogs, Bream, Mackerel and Conger caught. Paul C tells me that Tommy had a Bass off the beach at night and Peter had a 44cm Keeper near the Mulberry.

Angling Competition Calendar

Should anyone wish to go ahead with this on Sunday 27th July from 08.00am – 16.00pm HT 14.12pm 5.56m Bass.

Work Parties

From RC Angling Paul C, he will now be putting a Work List up for the Club by next Wednesday with blank spaces for you to write any of your observations about what needs doing. This is in the hope that we can move certain issues forward with the help of members who cannot help with or would rather do this than, for example, Bar duties or other duties:-

Paddlers/WaterSports

Oh yes, it did turn out to be a great and sunny afternoon leading to a lovely evening with a wide variety of the ages of our members trying to drown themselves! No pizza this time to satisfy everyone for their hard work, but I hear that next Wednesday the orders are very good despite what the weather reports say.

Don't forget that if Paddlers is cancelled due to weather conditions and that you have placed an order for a pizza, you must honour the payment for this as Sam will have already paid for the ingredients.

Meat Raffle

A big thank you to all of our members, and especially to Carole Warren, who have supported our Meat Raffle on Sundays. I am delighted to let you know that from the income from the Raffle, our Club have been bought a large, powerful and incredibly versatile six burner Gas BBQ with enough cooking capacity for our busy events.

This, along with the donation of two smaller BBQ from our Treasurer Sarah, means that we should be in a position to run a friendly family event one weekend during the summer months without worrying about who is able to bring their own equipment.

One issue we are aware of is the need to ensure that these BBQs maintained and are stored after use, rather than left out to degrade in the wet and salty atmosphere of our patio.

Bar Items

A couple of items for all Bar users starting with the most important one; we are selling Doombar at £2 per pint as a special treat until we run out! This should last a week or two, or more, so do indulge and enjoy.

The other one relates to the ticket you are issued from the Till when someone buys you a drink for you to take at a later date – which you will hopefully be keeping safe in your wallet or bag and not putting it in your pocket so it goes through the washing machine? Don't laugh....

Just wanted to say to you and to whoever is taking your ticket, to give you your drink and to make sure to tear the ticket up. It doesn't need to go in the Till, and shouldn't be entered in the Till at all, as the money has already been paid.

Social Events

Where to begin? It really has been a busy weekend starting as always with our Keith on Friday night and Play Your Card Right. This time the lucky winner was Andy Stewart in the first round with £84 to put in his pocket! If you look at the photo you may have gathered that he was very happy about him being the winner....

Before karaoke took over, Olive presented the Club with some more of his carpentry works. These were for the outside of our Club house to welcome both current members and new members. Lovely! (They have now been displayed in position visible from the pathways). Stylish idea.

On Sunday, we welcomed back the guitarist and singer Duncan McKenzie for what turned out had to be indoor entertainment as the "breezy" weather got us again! Whilst the sun was shining, that breeze just meant that any music would have been swept towards Butlins. How do you charge them for that? Never mind, we all enjoyed The Road To Hell, Lala and, dare I say it....Sweet Caroline!!!!

Friday Night Suppers

From Sue, don't forget that the list for Friday Night's Supper will be taken down this Wednesday so, if you haven't put your name down yet you must get a move on! It's loaded garlic baguette with either barbecued Chicken or barbecued Pulled Pork with a Veggie option, along with peppered onions etc.

All of this is £6 pp plus added extras on the night. Sue tells me that she won't be doing this in August as she has a date with Tom Jones! Yeah, yeah Sue – I'm supposed to be meeting Rod Stewart but I've told him that I know he's married, and he's soooo much older than me that he doesn't stand a chance – never mind the money as I don't care!!!!
