

Hello everybody.

Jill has finally handed over the mantle of Honorary Blogger, and I am sure you would all like to join me in thanking her for all the hard work she has put in, keeping us informed and entertained with her wit, warmth and undoubted knowledge. A hard act to follow but here goes...

Sailing Events

This was Saturday.

Then came Sunday. What a difference a day makes.

Sunday saw the the races in aid of Bart's Bash. There would have been 2 races, but the wind was so bad they only did one. PYC would usually invite the RNLI ladies to set up their stall to sell their goodies but we had to cancel them this Sunday as the wind was so strong they couldn't have put their stand up. That was a shame as they usually earn from passing beach trade as well.

Thanks to Jill for the pics

Angling & Fishing

From RC Angling Paul C

It has been a quiet week on the angling side except 3 Anglers went out on Tuesday evening for a couple of hours and Ric managed to catch this 47 cm bass for dinner. Beach match dates will be sent on the angling watts app.

That looks impressive,

Paddlers/Water Sports

The weather has not been on the paddlers' side and the forecast is not promising - it's going to be a "watch this space"

Friday Night Suppers

An amendment to last week's blog, the first Friday Night Supper for Autumn will now start in October. Details are coming soon!

Meat Raffle

Once again, a fabulous selection, well done Carole.

Just a few photos from Sunday:

Jill finally got her beef steak.

Social Events

Play Your Cards Right on Friday saw not one but two winners.

Rocky took an early win of £56.00.

It took another two rounds for G to win

On Sunday we were entertained by the lovely Louise and despite the howling wind and rain there was a great turnout.

A good time had by all.

The following day we have

As Pagham has seemingly said farewell to summer, let's look forward to Halloween. It has been announced that firm favourite High Tide will be playing at the Halloween party on the 1st Nov.

Any Other Business

As a homage to my predecessor for the first and last time:

'Why did the fisherman sit at the dock crying? He missed his boat.'

'It's fine to enthusiastic about sailing...just don't go overboard.'

And finally...

'Paddleboarding. The perfect way to get Vitamin Sea.'

You're welcome.
