

Welcome

Sailing Events

The conditions this weekend may have been against the Pagham sailors, but in the waters off Greece the PYC flag flies high.

Angling & Fishing

From RC Angling Paul C.

Two anglers fished the beach over the weekend with plenty of dog fish caught along with congers and strap eels.

Next match is this coming Sunday 9th. November, hopefully the weather is ok to have a go, starts 10 am till 3 pm.

Swimmers beware, a porpoise washed up on the beach this weekend bitten in half by a shark! Watch out Monkeys.

AGM

Advance notice of the AGM on Sunday 30th November which will be starting at 10.30pm. When you receive this blog, all matters for discussion to the Hon Sec will have been closed.

The agenda and accompanying papers for the AGM will be sent out by email approximately 2 to 3 weeks before the meeting and a copy of the papers will be posted on the Pagham Yacht Club website for those members who do not have a personal email. For those members who do not have access to a computer or iPhone, there will be several printed copies in the Club for collection.

Due to the heavy weight of the papers and the exorbitant cost of postage, we will no longer be sending these papers out by post.

Bar

A new HSE compliant book now in place behind the bar door. All members please be aware that any accident, tripping and falling or slipping causing bruising or cuts etc on

Club premise or accidents that we deal with, be it for our members or for the public that come in to ask for help should be recorded, for insurance and good practice.

A massive thank you to Carole, Jill and everybody that has bought tickets to support PYC Sunday raffle. This has enabled the club to buy an amazing new Bose sound system from the raffle proceeds of £545.

This Sunday's lucky winners included Sue Briggs, Glyn, Kevan and Tracy with a triple wammy!

Dinner Dance

PYC Dinner Dance tickets are now available behind the bar, £50 cash only. Only 60 tickets available for the Lamb so do not leave it too late.

Social Events

Play Your Cards Right on Friday with Ghoulish Keith

One happy man, and Mick looks quite chuffed as well.

Halloween Saturday

The kids had a spooktacular party. Well done to Sue B and the team for all your hard work with the decorations, food, and all-round entertainment.

That's where the loo paper went!

The spooky festivities continued into the evening with 'High Tide' and bevy of beasts. Here are just a few of the delights that filled the night...some too terrifying to show.

Nice suit Commadore but not sure you got the email...
